The Weekly Habit

By Toyo Takata

The most interesting individuals in our midst are the Issei pioneers who came to Canada before the turn of the century. Their many experiences when they first landed in this country, their wonderment, their bewilderment, their laughter, their tears in this strange new land, is a treasure chest of fascinating memories.

Most of them came as boys in their teens to make their fortune in America where wealth and plenty of it, was just waiting to be picked across the Pacific. A few of them found it, through their own sweat, patience, frugality and ingenuity, and returned to Japan. The others remained to form the early nucleus of the people of Japanese origin in Canada.

They can recount legend-like tales and describe the early Vancouver days when the B. C. coast was still sparsely settled. They can tell of their ocean passage, cattle-style in the steerage holds. They know what it means to be bitter and cold and hungry, and lonely for their home, their friends and their loved ones.

Then they can also remember with a reminiscing gleam, the humourous drama of experiences resulting from their lack of the English language. And the many trying times they had because of their ignorance of Westerns manners, customs and foods.

We've heard many of these anecdotic incidents of these Issei oldtimers but we can recall but one. This man who passed away some years ago, a few months after arriving in Canada, saw in a store what to him appeared to be delicious looking fruit, and cheap, too. So he bought a whole bag. He bit into one, it was bitter, he threw it away. He bit into another, it was the same, he threw away the whole bag.

He later found out what he bought, crab apples.

The first Japanese ever to make his home in Canada is believed to be Manzo Nagano. He came in 1877 as a member of a ship's crew. His vessel called at New Westminster and when it sailed he remained ashore. Here, in partnership with an Italian, he became engaged in fishing on the Fraser River to become the very first of hundreds of Japanese fishermen who were to later enter the salmon fishing industry.

[illegible] years here, he [illegible] Vancouver where he [illegible] time as a long-[illegible] He saw Vancouver [illegible] consisted of a dozen [illegible] as known as Gas-[illegible] of this, he joined [illegible] sailed for the Ori-[illegible] returned to New [illegible] 1884 where he [illegible] eight Japanese [illegible] fishing.

He then lived for a few years in Seattle where he became engaged in business. Next he returned to Japan for a time, and in 1892 he returned once more to Canada. He settled down in Victoria where he opened a business selling Japanese goods. He returned to Japan in the early 1920's and there he passed away.

His first son, believed to be in his early fifties or late forties, is probably one of the first persons of Japanese parents to be born in Canada. He is believed to be living in California. Another son makes his home in British Columbia.

If anyone ever attempts the tremendous task of writing a book about the Japanese in Canada, they should start now while many of these pioneers are still with us. And it should be spiced with tales of the earliest Japanese immigrants. They are colorful and make interesting reading.

Sono Osato Asked To Join Vaudeville

NEW YORK. — Sono Osato has been approachd by Promoter Mike Todd to take part in his "Two-a-Day" vaudeville show according to a report by New York Times' Lewis Funke.

Fans Vote Sub Miike Most Valuable Player

LEAMINGTON, Ont. — Sub Miike, shortstop of the Leamington Barons, was voted the most valuable player on the team by a ballot of Leamington fans and presented with the Ray A. Young trophy. The silver trophy, depicting a ball player in action was presented by Mr. Young in a pre-game ceremony.

Miike, a member of the Barons for the last three years, has been one of the key men in keeping the team on top of the league. He has starred both on the field and at bat. In a game last Sunday against Harrow, Miike blasted a triple and three singles in five trips to the plate, demonstrating the ability which won him the trophy.

British Tokyo Hotels Bar American Niseis

TOKYO. — A "whites only" policy has barred American officers of Japanese descent, some from General MacArthur's headquarters, from the best hotels of the British Commonwealth occupation forces.

American military officials said they were taking reservations from only white personnel for the hotels in question because of B.C.O.F. regulations. An official of the British Commonwealth Occupation forces stated that it was their policy that no persons of Japanese descent whether they be in uniforms or not, be permitted in the hotels.

"Lost Boundaries"

Valuable Documentation On Race Relations

By Norah Fujita

When the motion picture, "Lost Boundaries", comes to your town, I would recommend that you see it. It is a Louis de Rochemont production, another real-life drama produced by one who believes that "the aim of any drama is to give the illusion of real things happening. So why not use real things in the first place."

The story of "Lost Boundaries" comes to us from Keenham, New Hampshire, USA. There is where it happened, there is where it was filmed and from there a number of the actors were cast. The drama centres around a White Negro doctor and his wife, who have made a heart-searching and conscious decision to "pass", yet that decision is made without personal compromise or forsaking of their race or their personal awareness that they are Negro. For nearly twenty years they live on the other side of the 'colour-line' and even their own children have no knowledge that they are of Negro extraction. But an incident reveals this fact in time to the community—and the son and daughter are informed.

While viewing "Lost Boundaries" you have the opportunity of seeing life for a couple of hours from the point of view of persons of a minority group, within a much discriminated-against racial group, the White Negroes. The 'colour line' is applied against them in the Negro community, the stigma of 'racial inferiority' is applied against them in the White community.

At the conclusion of another film on the theme of race relations recently, my companion turned to me and said, "but the fact is none of this sinks in—the majority of people just pass it off as another picture they have seen." I wish he could be wrong in his conclusion, for I cannot conceive of anyone not being moved by "Lost Boundaries" nor can I conceive of any one not being provoked into some pretty profound thinking. True, the situation depicted for us is on a simple plane; for instance, economic tensions are not introduced into the story, simply because, in this case, they were a neutral factor.

"Lost Boundaries" is a very valuable documentary on the subject of race relations as well as a commendable screen play. It may well prove the thin edge of the wedge to open prejudiced minds to at least more racial tolerance.

Joyce Fujimagari Taber Popularity Contest Winner, Crowned by Alberta Beauty Queen

QUEEN CROWNS QUEEN. Patsy Bullock, winner of Southern Alberta's Beauty Pageant places crown on Joyce Fujimagari, winner of Taber's popularity contest.

TABER, Alta. — Pretty Joyce Fujimagari was declared the winner of the popularity contest conducted by the Trojans Club which was formerly known as the Taber Junior Nisei Baseball Club. During the intermission at a special dance held by the Trojans on Sept. 16, Miss Fujimagara was crowned Miss Trojan of 1949 by Miss Patsy Bullock, charming winner of Southern Alberta's beauty pageant who took part in the Miss Canada Contest representing Sunny Alberta.

The other contestants were Kay Nakamura and Sue Shimozawa. The contest was so close that all rechecked in order to assure fairness to the three participants.

Approximately 500 persons were on hand to witness the affair.

Kiyoto Shigehiro was the master of ceremonies for the big event with Roy Nagata in charge of the spotlight. Ernie Woods and his Hi Hatters provided the music.

End Nears in 'Tokyo Rose' Trial As Mrs. d'Aquino Concludes Testimony And Defense Rests

SAN FRANCISCO. — Iva Toguri d'Aquino stepped down from the witness stand last week still sticking to her story that she was not "Tokyo Rose" and had never committed treason against her native United States.

The Nisei defendant had undergone three days of direct examination followed by three days of scathing cross examination by U. S. Prosecutor Tom De Wolfe. He wrung from her only partial admissions on three of the eight overt acts with which she is charged. She denied emphatically the other five charges.

She maintained steadfastly that she never committed any treason against the United States or intended to do so; that she refused to accede to Japanese police and army presure to renounce her American citizenship; and that she had broadcast under fear and coercion.

She did admit that it was her voice upon the records of the Zero Hour, the Japanese radio program from Radio Tokyo, which the government played for the jury in the early weeks of the trial.

On Sept. 16, the defense rested its case.

Newsmen at "Rose" Trial Favor Acquital

SAN FRANCISCO. — As the defense ended its case last week in the "Tokyo Rose" trial, an informal poll was taken among the 14 men and women at the press table who have been covering the trial for the past 11 weeks.

The votes reflected what each of the newsmen believed in the defendant's guilt or innocence of the crimes charged.

There were no votes for a conviction.

Eight voted for acquital, one predicted a hung jury, and another declared that the evidence was not all in. One did not vote.

Large Gathering Hears Dr. Matsumoto's Talk

A capacity audience turned out to hear Dr. T. Matsumoto at the Toronto Metropolitan church house on Sept. 15 under the sponsorship of the Metropolitan Nisei Fellowship.

Throughout his entire address, Dr. Matsumoto held the gathering's attention with his sincerity and simplicity.

This year we welcome Miss Neta Sadler who will be our new adviser. On Thursday, Sept. 28, Rev. Edward Yoshioka will be in charge of the opening fellowship meeting. Installation of the executive members will take place. A special invitation is extended to Niseis who have come to Toronto this summer. The place is the Metropolitan church house, Bond and Shuter, at 8 p.m.

〔第七十九回〕

朝の道

その朝、啓子は父と一緒に家を出た。

「お父様、いいお天氣ね。」

朝の陽を全身に浴びて歩き出しながら、啓子が言ふと

「うむ。」

杉野先生は、まぶしげに眼を細めて、青く澄んだ空を仰ぎながら、

「全くいい日和だ。——しかし、啓子、何んと言つても、この空の色はもう冬の青さだね。」

「それはさうよ。おつつけもう十二月ですもの。——ほらあたしたちの吐く息がもうこんなに白く見えますわ。」

「うむ。」

物慾もなく、生涯を兒童の教育に捧げて來た父と、その父の仕事のあとをしたつて、不幸な子供たちの友として豊かな青春をつゝましく生きて行かうとする娘と。

廣い道路に出ると、父と娘は、毎朝の通り、少し急ぎ足に驛の方へ歩き出した。

啓子は小聲で何か歌を口ずさんでゐる。

「おい啓子。」

と杉野先生が微笑しながら言つた。

「何? お父様。」

啓子はにつこりと父を見上げた。

「お前、歌なんかうたつて、大層御機嫌がいいんだな。お天氣のいゝせゐかな?」

「あら。」

「この間うちは、お父さんが心配するくらゐ、何んだか沈んでゐて、物を言つても返事をしなかつたことがあつたが……」

「あら。さうかしら?」

啓子は、少し極り惡さうに微笑の眼を父に向けた。

「うむ。さうだつた。それがこの二三日、見違へるやうに元氣になつて、何か非常によいことでもあつたのかな?」

「ええ、あつたかも知れないわ。」

啓子は、遠い前方に視線を向けながら、いよ〳〵晴ればれと、どこか謎のやうにほゝゑんだ。

變るもの・變らぬもの（一）

レイ・フォーク記

先日秩父宮と御殿場にある彼の「農場」でお茶を飲みながら會談したとき、彼は私に向つて「日本國民には根本的變化は何一つ感ぜられない」といつた。そこで私が「全然ですか」と問い返すと、彼は頭を横に振りながら「一つもない」と言い返した。

それ以來秩父宮のこの言葉は私の脳裏から離れたことがない。何百万のアメリカ人が四年間も日本人とともに生活しているにもかゝわらず、何ものをも背後に殘すことができぬということは、どうしたわけなのだろう。

私は私の一生のうちの三年間を日本で過しながら私を迎えてくれた人々から何ものも學ぶことができないのかと思うと、いやになる。何ものとというのはすでに私の一部となつている貴重なあるもの、または私自身にはそれとはつきりは判らないが、永遠に私の個性の一部を形づくるようなあるものを指すのだ。何か變化が行われるだろうか。だれもが口にしているこの民主主義はどこにあるのだろうか。

これらの問は終戰四周年を迎えた今日當然發せられなければならない問題である。

だが果してだれがこの問に答えられよう。朝日新聞のゾーゲの塔で朱筆を動かしたりタイプライターのキーを叩いているアメリカの記者や日本の記者ではないことは確實だ

日本沿岸を荒らす
大砲装備の密輸船

既報の通り密入國者を防ぐため海上警備艇トン數を一躍十倍にあげる事をマ元帥が許可したという電の報道に就て日本からのニュースは次の如く傳えている

「一航千金」をねらう密貿易船の横行がしきりである。九州沿岸から秋田、山形にいたる日本海岸線はこのため荒しまわされ、瀬戸内海までが海賊船の舞台となつている、一方また愛國密航もしきりで、これらの船はほとんど機關銃を備え、大砲まで用意してきながらギャング船である、こうした海の挑戰に日本全土の海岸線二万一千四百九十五キロを守る海上警備艇の勢苦もひとしおである、政府でも連合軍總司令部から近く移管される出入國管理に伴い治安維持の見地から海上保安廳の警備艇トン數を一躍十倍にあげて五万トンにすることにした

一航海千万圓

風の如く暗夜の海を横行する密輸、密航船の海上ギャング・ルートは朝鮮、關東州、香港を起點として九州から神奈川、千葉にまで及んでいる、密輸船は殆んど二、三十トン、最近相當强力なパックと資本網を持ち大がかりな組織力にものいわせて日々増大している。密輸物資は主として高級衣料砂糖、麻薬類、サントニン、化粧品、生ゴム、ライター石染料などで一航海でうまくいけば五百萬圓から一千萬圓はもうかるという

職權に制限

【東京發】總司令部發表によると海外に派遣される日本領事は外交官としてすべての特權を享受する事は出來ず、任務は日本人居住民に對する法律上の保護、出産、死亡の登録受付け及び貿易上の情報蒐集であり職權に制限がある

日系人の散在現狀
東部カナダは九千百人議會報告

【オタワ發】九月二十日のオタワ議會に於て勞働省はカナダ在住日系人の再定住に關して報告を行つたが、その報告中に「日系カナダ人は滿足に再定住し、無事に新しいホームに落ちつき奮闘努力してあらゆる方面に活躍している」と書いている。議會で發表された日系人の散在現狀は次の通り

△平原州――從前までは日系全人口の三パーセントに當る六六四人であつたが現在は二七パーセント増の五、六九五

△東部カナダ――オンタリオ、ケベック及沿海州では[illegible]東部カナダは從來[illegible]パーセントしか居住していなかつたのが現在では九、一〇〇人となり全加の日系人口の四四パーセントである

△ビーシー州――戰前九六パーセントまでが居住していたビーシー州は今では二九パーセント（約六千人）となつている

台所に響く平價切下げ
罐詰、石炭ガソリンなど値上り

ポンド貨の切下げとカナダ・ドルの値下げは實際の家計簿にどうひびくか――第一に米國からの輸入品目は全般的に一〇パーセント値上りすることは確實である。フルーツ及び野菜物類の米產物は一足飛びに一割値が上り、米國產のフルーツやフルーツジュースの罐詰も同様に十月から高くなる。一方カナダ國内で消費する無煙炭の九〇パーセントは米國から輸入している關係上、これまた一トンに一弗乃至一弗五十仙ほど上り、燃料用オイルも同じく値上りされる。自動車のガソリンは一割値上りとなると同時に米諸の自動車はもとより、資材を米國から輸入しているカナダ產の自動車も高くなるに反し英產の豆自動車は五百弗から八百弗に至つて大市値下りとなつている

日本雜誌値上げ

日本から來る雜誌類の豫約は今後値上げされるようになつている。日本よりの雜誌輸入は米ドルでなされるのでカナダ貨の一割引下げで當然一〇パーセントを多く支拂はねばならず、自然と雜誌類も一割値上げさるう。同じ理由で醬油、[illegible]其他をはじめこれから來る日本品も大体値段が上る

圓爲替率不變更

【東京發】ドルに關連して圓貨切下げ要求をマッカーサー元帥は拒絕した。爲替率は現行の三六〇圓對一弗。しかしポンドは一、四五〇・八圓から一〇〇八圓に下つた

物價高は増賃で

英國の平價切下げで物價が上るのに對抗して勞働組合では増賃要求のストライキを決行する氣がまえを示しているが政府では低收入勞働者に對してはすぐに一定限度の増賃を提議して對處する筈

鐵道貨物運賃引上

カナダの鐵道會社が貨物運賃二十パーセント引上げ許可方を要請してあつたのに對し運輸委員會は臨時に八パーセントだけ増加を許可した

Westerns Win Series With Squeeze Play

As darkness closed in, the Westerns pushed across the tie-breaking run in the dramatic sixth and last inning to nip the Mayfairs 3-2 in a battle that was a thriller all the way as the two teams met in the eighth and deciding game of the best of five series on Sept. 22. For the Westerns it was a hard fought and well-deserved win. In the seven previous encounters the teams battled to three ties and got two wins each.

Under threatening skies and occasional sprinkling of rain the game was played before a gathering of shivering fans who witnessed one of the most exciting games of the season. It appeared that the game was going to end in a tie as the two teams headed into the sixth in a 2-2 stalemate.

Hero of the game, Maw Mori, lashed a line double to deep centre to open the thrill-drenched inning. Clean-up man Koi Mitsui hit a scratch texas leaguer into short left field and pinch runner Mike Maruno had to hold second base. Ken Mitsui sacrificed the two runners to second and third. Then the payoff came in one of the most peculiar plays that's ever been witnessed. With one out, Baron Waka bunted to cross up the infield and scored the winning run from third. It was a looping bunt that pitcher McBratney of Mayfairs almost got his hands on. But Westerns, playing their usual daring game, squeezed their way to victory.

The Mayfairs got away to a good start by tallying a single run in the second. Ken Mitsui hit the first batter to face him and then walked another. A stinging double to centre scored one run. Then came the defensive gem of the game. Waka rifled the ball to Tsukamoto at shortstop who relayed the ball to catcher Mitsui nipping the runner sliding into the plate.

Towering Bill MacBratney of Mayfairs kept the Westerns hitless and scoreless until the fourth. Tsukamoto opened the frame with a single but was caught stealing. Koyanagi walked and Mori blasted a triple into right field, scoring Koyanagi. Mitsui singled to drive in Mori.

In the sixth inning Mayfairs came back with the tying run in the fifth to set the stage for the dramatic sixth. Mitsui got into trouble as he hit the first batter to face him and the next batter singled. Right fielder Ohara juggled the ball and the runners advanced to second and third. The next batter flied deep to centre, the runner on third scoring.

Play West Yorks

Westerns will meet West York in a best-of-seven series to decide the league championship commencing this afternoon with a doubleheader at St. Clair Memorial Stadium. First game will start at 1:45 p.m.

Left fielder Maw Mori was the shining light with his sparkling fielding and solid hitting. His triple and double sparked the Western attack. Koi Mitsui got two hits.

In the seventh game on Thursday night, Mayfairs came out on top 4-3 to knot the series at two games each. Westerns piled up a three run lead in the fourth only to have Mayfairs come back with two runs in both the fourth and fifth frames. In the fifth Ken Mitsui allowed a routine catch to go over his head in right field with a runner on base. The next batter singled to right batting in the tying and winning runs.

TORONTO NISEI PLAYOFFS

The playoff games which were rained out last Sunday in the Toronto Nisei Playdowns will be replayed tomorrow. Cardinals will meet the Bussels to decide the team to play the Danforth Cleaners for the league championship.

ACCENTS ON SPORTS

The Nisei softball team from Montreal, Montreal Stars, over the Labor Day weekend travelled to New York to engage in a two-game series. They lost both games, one to the New York Nisei All-stars 6-5, and the other to the Chinese team, Lee's, 5-2. Both encounters could have gone either way. Kaz Nishio and Squat Ono pitched for the Montrealers with Larry Nakatsuka behind the plate for both games.

• • •

The Montreal Nisei representatives in the City League have had a good season though they lost out in the post-season playoffs. With only three losses in 19 games, they were the co-champions of the League. Seven of their batters ended the season with a better than .300 batting average with Ki Konishi the high man with .348. Yosh Toyota batted .286 but played in fewer games. Karl Matsumiya hit eight homers during the season.

• • •

They consider 16-year old Nancy Ito of Denver as being about the best Nisei girl baseball player in the U. S. Playing shortstop for the Denver Tivolis, she is a good hitter as well as an excellent fielder and she helped her team win a place in the world's championship girls softball tournament in Portland, Ore.

In the first game of the tournament, Nancy picked up three hits.

She is also an outstanding basketball player. She played for the team which won the Colorado State championship and went to the women's national tournament at Kansas City.

• • •

In the New York Nisei Bowling League, which is considered a men's league, an all girls team has entered. That's in ten-pins.

We're said that an all-girls' team in Toronto could put up quite a scrap should they enter the Men's League here.

• • •

See where they had a golf tournament for Nisei girls in Chicago. We understand there are a few Nisei girls on this side of the 49th parallel who monkey with the occasional mashie.

Students Club To Hold Opening Fall Social

With the opening of the fall term at the University of Toronto it is again time for Freshman receptions. At the last executive meeting we decided to hold the Nisei Students Club opening social and freshman party on Sept. [illegible] at Ketchum Hall, 39 Davenport Road at Bay, starting at 8 p.m.

Students of all years are cordially invited to attend and we hope to have a full turnout. There is no admission charge and it is a good opportunity to meet new fellow students and welcome back the old. As it is difficult to contact each student individually, we hope that you will take the initiative to turn out.

A fashion-and-beauty article

Our Little Woman

By JACK NAKAMOTO

The use of rouge for our little woman as a beauty routine is usually not recommended if she is to appear her very best—with utmost dignity and elegance. It does not actually require the subtle eye of an artist to see that rouge does not make too great a contrast against such skin colourings as swarthy, pearly and white skin. Rouge only helps to look made-up, and, after all, the aim of every woman should be always to try to achieve the natural look.

If our Niseiette, however, still feels that she wants to use rouge, it's a "must" to begin with that the rouge, and the lipstick too, be of the same tone as her natural colouring. And in order to find the position where she can apply rouge, she might at first slap her cheeks until redness appears and the area where the red glow readily manifests itself is considered an approximate position where Mother Nature intended for red cheeks. At least this theory was advanced by the late Earl Carroll, the famous showman of colourful extravaganzas and connoisseur of beautiful women, whose lavish Hollywood theatre—restaurant is adorned with the slogan: "Through these portals pass the most beautiful women in the world".

The successful application of rouge is undoubtedly one of the most difficult techniques our little women can encounter. By this virtue alone, it's a $64 question whether she is to be or not to be—a lady! For the most part, however, thanks to the nimble touch of her hands, she is fairly good in the art of rouging. The safest rule to follow is to always under-rouge and the goal to achieve is that, oh so subtle blending outwards into the powder to nothingness. Any vestige of demarcation is a sure sign of uncultured care.

If our Niseiette has an egg-shaped or oval type of face which is considered the most ideal, she should place the rouge in the centre of the cheek where she had patted briskly to bring out the red tinge, blending it up over the cheek-bone toward the temple and carrying it lightly up under the eye, especially if she had dark circles. This will help her to erase any trace of the "morning after".

For a round type of a face shaped like a full, bright moon, she's wise to wear rouge on the outer portion of her cheeks, so as to subdue the fullness at the sides. She should carry it up toward the temple and down so that it faintly shades the jaw, using the darkest tone rouge that blends with her complexion.

A healthy, square-rigged face calls upon our Niseiette to place the rouge in a circle under the eye and to carry it back toward the ear, then lightly down under the jawline so that it creates a shadow on the prominent lower part of the face.

Our little woman with a oblong face will do well to apply rouge in a carefully blended circle in the centre of her cheeks, always keeping in mind not to use rouge too close to her nose or too far out on the sides of her face.

If she is of a triangular or daruma-san type, however, she should start her rouge just back from the centre of the cheek, blending it up to her temple and down very faintly over the jawline. In this way, her rouge acts as a shadow and helps to minimize the width of her jaw.

The final test of a successful application of rouge is when our little woman and her friends can hardly distinguish if her cheeks are rouged or natural. Such is the test that demands all the subtleness of an artist.
